Theatre of Lights Positions

All employees will be cross trained.

Stagehand – This position requires the Part-Time staff to assist the production crew with stage set-up and assisting the TOL cast members onto their spots during shows. This position requires some physical capabilities such as pulling fixtures up via pulley system, pushing Santa's sleigh, and rotating a stage while a cast member stands on it. This part-time position requires availability Thursday – Sunday, November 23rd to December 24th from roughly 3:30pm to 8:30pm each event date.

* Due to the nature of the stagehand, it is recommended to assign this duty to a Part-Time staff comfortable with lifting 40 lbs. or more multiple times a night.

Street Supervision – This position requires the Part-Time staff to maintain clear walkways and driveways and oversee Street Support as well as volunteers, if applicable. Direct traffic along Firehouse Alley when necessary. This position serves as “eyes on the street” while the full-time staff is not on-site or is otherwise unavailable. (Floater). This part-time position requires availability Thursday – Sunday, November 23rd to December 24th from roughly 3:30pm to 8:30pm each event date.

Street Support -- A third Part-Time staff can provide additional support on the street. This is especially helpful during peak nights. Hand out OSW promotional materials, informing guests of show times, answering FAQs (i.e. directions to restrooms), and assisting guest Mams/Papas find the stage. (Stationed near K & Front to maintain clear driveway). This part-time position. Two positions available. Requires availability Thursday – Sunday, November 23rd to December 24th from roughly 3:30pm to 8:30pm each event date.
